ELIGIBILITY

Selection of exhibitors remains the exclusive right of Ah-Ha! Arts Management. The results are final. Jurors reserve the right to limit categories and reject work deemed unsuitable.

Concentration is on artisans whose work concentrates on the outdoors and nature. This includes but is not limited to: garden arts, pet items, pottery, outdoor recreation, photography, herbal crafts, glass, recycled materials and nature art, jewelry, papermaking, and sculpture.

Original works by professional and amateur artisans. Objects made from commercial kits or commercial available plans are not acceptable.

ENTRY PROCEDURE:

Submit this application with images.

- Include four–six images representative of the work you will display. Please also submit an image of your display
- CD with jpeg 300 dpi minimum or email allison@ah-haartsmgmt.com to arrange email or Dropbox file transfer
- Label each image with artist's name, media, title and price. Images should show one item clearly against a simple background

Upon acceptance you will receive a contract that will tell you all about the event's procedures and how to provide us with an inventory of the work you will be bringing. You will also receive information on how to sign up for check in/out times and to volunteer at the event.

EMERGING ARTIST APPLICATION

We reserve one table per event for an emerging artist. Being chosen waives the $40 table fee (but not the 25% commission).

To apply for this please provide:

- Two paragraph explanation of why you would qualify as an emerging artist (being new to shows or new to the craft are just two examples). Tell us about who you are, your path to get where you are now, and your vision for the future
- Two letters of recommendation (from customers, suppliers, teachers, other artisans)
- Additional portfolio/pictures of your work in progress (above the 4-6 required for entry)
- Fill out application in full
- $40 space fee to be returned if awarded Emerging Artist status
